Putting God First

For the longest time, I've always thought I was able to do things on my own. Whether it came to spiritual needs or physical needs. I've been doing everything on my own since I can remember. I thought I didn't need anyone else, and at one time it felt like I didn't need God as well.

Due to the nature of my work, I found it difficult to attend church regularly. And what started as a mild inconvenience slowly turned into something that seemed like a chore. Every day, I strayed further away from God. Too far away. Sin became a very natural thing to do and sometimes I would have no remorse for sinning. I'd choose to ignore the conviction of the Holy Spirit.

How To Give?

One day God decided to teach me a lesson to show me that I am nothing without Him and I am only where I am today because of Him. Everything seemed to go wrong. My physical health, mental health, my relationships, and my career. It was difficult, but I knew that God was trying to call me back to Him.

I was blessed enough that regardless of how I treated God, He is always merciful to me. God sent me people to speak to me and eventually, I was invited to join a small group. I was reluctant at first as for the longest time I had been doing just fine on my own, or so I thought. Thankfully, God never gives up on us, ever.

Being in a cell group has definitely helped me with surrounding myself with the right people and keeping my eyes on Him. Studying His word kept me from relapsing to my old ways and taught me how to depend more on God. To surrender whatever my worries or burdens to Him. To seek Him first and everything will be provided for me. (Matthew 6:33) Being in a group also helps me with keeping accountability on my walk with God. I guess I expected that I was going to get back on track with my relationship with God. What was unexpected was that: it's fun! I thought maybe I'd be out of place and that it would be difficult to adapt but I guess I just forgot how it feels like to be surrounded by loving and lively people.

But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.
- Matthew 6:33

Prayer Spotlight

Leaders of FBC

1. Give thanks for the pastors, elders and leaders and for their obedience to heed the call of God upon their lives as shepherds over the flock in FBC. Pray for God's protection over them and their families, keeping them safe from accidents and sicknesses.
2. Pray that our leaders will walk in Intimacy and hear only the voice of the Good Shepherd. Pray that they will have a fresh encounter with God and their intimacy will go even deeper.
3. Ask that God will grant them discernment of his good, pleasing and perfect will through the renewal of their minds by the Holy Spirit.
4. Give them boldness and wisdom to walk in his will in their lives, in every ministry in the church, so that they will always be in full alignment with You.
