On 19 January 2024, some 280 members of FBC were treated to a delicious dinner at Oriental Pavillion in PJ.

This occasion was held in appreciation for all volunteers who have been serving in various roles such as ushers, car park attendants, teachers in Sunday School and CCC, scripture readers, florists, sous chefs in the Soup Kitchen, connectors at Chat & Snack and the Connect Corner for newcomers, Logos library assistants, editors and graphic designers for the

Prayer for FBC Volunteers

Heavenly Father,

we come before you with hearts overflowing with gratitude for the volunteers in FBC, the compassionate volunteers who selflessly give of themselves to serve others. The volunteers who work diligently behind the scenes, the volunteers who use their unique talents and skills.

Lord, bless these volunteers with renewed strength and zeal. Let their enthusiasm serve as a beacon of hope and motivation to others. As they continue to serve with joy, may they experience your presence in every moment.

Bless them for their quiet dedication and unwavering commitment to making a difference. Encourage them to persevere in their noble endeavors, knowing that their labor is not in vain.

Lord, we ask for Your wisdom to pour over volunteer leaders. Grant them discernment to make decisions that align with Your will. May their leadership be characterized by humility, empathy, and a deep understanding of the needs of those they serve.
