Kairos Ministry Under First Baptist Church

Let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together... but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. - HEBREWS 10:24-25 (ESV)

I have known about First Baptist Church (“FBC”) since my schooling days, more than 10 years ago, when the Church had graciously extended its building for school Christian Fellowship camps and practices for Subang Rally (an annual Christian Conference for teenagers, with the much-anticipated concert at the end of the event). But, I had only started attending FBC mid-January 2023, just before Kairos commenced, where I’d sit quietly in the back and leave immediately after the service was over.

For context, I have always been a little reserved in established churches and preferred a smaller congregation to serve and connect with its members. Hence, when Kairos was announced, this piqued my interest to learn and know more about it, since I have been actively involved in Orang Asli ministries and a better part of my youth was spent attending Bahasa services, despite my English-speaking background.

So, when I attended the first Kairos gathering, it made me feel at ease from the moment the worship songs were sung in Bahasa, and somehow, I felt peace in the spirit that my search for a church over the past 4 years or more, may have finally come to fruition.

Admittedly at the beginning, I was shy to connect since I had lost touch with what it was to be in fellowship with church members. Still, each person in Kairos has humbled me with their friendliness and acceptance, disregarding color and background. What to me started as an obligation to serve, has now become an anticipated weekly fellowship with lots of fun and blessings.

MCO has definitely impacted my social side and on top of being an extreme workaholic, I was going through a lot of personal issues which kept me from serving for the longest time, but something about being in Kairos made me realize just how much I have missed being in church and serving the Lord, and this has also reminded me how important it is to have God-Fearing people around me, to support in prayer and to talk about God, in the process, also my inner healing has started to take place.

In this one year since Kairos first started, I have seen growth, not only in numbers, but in love and bonding with each other as a family brought together by the Lord under this ministry.

We have even planned meet-ups and “lepak” sessions outside of Kairos such as badminton and dinners, and are also exploring other fun activities to spend more time with each other. I think one thing really wonderful about everyone here is that we all have a teachable spirit and are passionate to learn about God. The testimonies of how the Lord has brought us through our darkest moments and even experienced the miracles of God in our lives truly an immense encouragement of what an Amazing God we serve.

I have attended many churches, but the one significant difference I see that sets Kairos apart for me is the very fact that the activities, the way it is run and the programs somehow create a safe space for us to be at ease, raise in us a desire and want to actively participate and serve, to reach out and to step up.

Truly, I can see the Lord working in this Ministry, and for me, it is indeed a privilege and blessing to be in Kairos.

On a side note, Kairos is a ministry conducted bilingually in Bahasa Malaysia (BM) and English, so if you are looking for an avenue to improve your BM or you are aware of your East Malaysian friends and Indonesian connections who are seeking a place to grow, we welcome you to visit and fellowship with us! We are present every Sunday at Room B112 (on the 1st Floor) between 11.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m, before we adjourn to Globe Café for LUNCH~

Prayer for Kairos Ministry

1. Weekly worship and the Word of God in the power of the Holy Spirit to shape and form thinking and lifestyle correcting behavior and attitudes. Pray for God to grow the ministry.
2. Kairos Fellowship encourages keeping company with Jesus via "Alkitab 2 chapters daily." Pray that more will take up the challenge to read the Bible chronologically in depth as the Spirit of Truth moves to internalize what Scripture teaches about God.
3. Safe and supportive community for people especially teens and children in an unsafe world. Pray weekly lunch fellowship and activity Sundays (last Sunday of the month— testimony, quiz, prayers—covenant to play, pray, and receive one another in charity and love.
