Jacob Wrestles with God

Genesis 30-32

Part 1 of 5: Journey Back to Promised Land by God's Orders

Genesis 31:3

Then the Lord said to Jacob, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

Genesis 32:1-6

Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him. When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!" So he named that place Mahanaim.

Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom. 4 He instructed them: "This is what you are to say to my lord Esau: 'Your servant Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban and have remained there till now. I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, male and female servants. Now I am sending this message to my lord, that I may find favor in your eyes.'"

When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him."

1) a) Fill in the Blanks/Comprehension question. Based on Jacob's prayer in Genesis 32:9-12, he seems to have transformed. Write down how Christians today can learn from his transformation. (You may find new testament verses with similar concepts to answer)

Part 2 of 5: Jacob's Strategy

Genesis 32:7-8 In great fear and distress Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups, and the flocks and herds and camels as well. He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks one group, the group that is left may escape."
Genesis 32:13-21 He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift for his brother Esau: two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. 16 He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds."

He instructed the one in the lead: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'Who do you belong to, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?' then you are to say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us.'"

He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. And be sure to say, 'Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.'" For he thought, "I will pacify him with these gifts I am sending on ahead; later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me." So Jacob's gifts went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

2) Discussion Question. Does Jacob's Strategy of being the last to see Esau means he does not trust in God completely?

Part 3 of 5: Wrestling with God

Genesis 32:22-32

That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two female servants and his eleven sons and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions. So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till daybreak. When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man. Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak."

But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

3) a) Fill in the Blanks/Comprehension question. Answer the questions on Jacob's wrestle with God.

Part 4 of 5: Meeting Esau

Genesis 33:1-3 Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men; so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two female servants. He put the female servants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph in the rear. He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.
Genesis 33:10-11 No, please!” said Jacob. “If I have found favor in your eyes, accept this gift from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favorably. Please accept the present that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need.” And because Jacob insisted, Esau accepted it.

Case Study

Case 1 – Wrestling with God

Jerry was born into a wealthy family who ran a shipping business. He grew up in church with his parents who were faithfully attending Penang Baptist Church.

One day, calamity struck and the shipping business went bust due to low demand for logistics and the disruption in the supply chain. This caused Jerry's father to declare bankruptcy and led Jerry's family into great financial distress. They were evicted from their bungalow and had to sell everything of value that they had to survive.

Jerry was only 17 at this time and struggled with God because of this incident. He became very broken because all his friends abandoned him. He tried to find ways to earn money to get back what his family lost but failed miserably and was bitter towards God. Nevertheless, Jerry held on to God's promise in Proverbs 3:5-6 to "trust in the Lord with all thine heart".

For many years, Jerry lived a frugal life but remained faithful to the Lord. There came another turning point in Jerry's life, where he became successful in his own career as one of the directors of an MNC. Eventually, a recession came, the company was deeply impacted and he was laid off as part of the company's exercise in austerity. Nevertheless, he prayed about it and left his situation in the Lord's hands. Whatever the circumstances now, Jerry knew that God is faithful and continued to trust Him.

- 1) a) Discussion question. Was Jerry's brokenness a blessing or a curse?

- b) Discussion question. What evidence do you see of a changed character in Jerry?

- c) Discussion question. Give examples in the Bible of characters who went through periods of great difficulty in which God molded them.

- d) Discussion question. Consider the famous Romans 8:28-29. What is the purpose of our circumstances/suffering/struggle/wrestling according to this verse?

- e) Discussion question. What was the "purpose" as it were of Jerry's suffering?

- f) Discussion question. Will our life as Christians be exempt from suffering/temptations/tests? Why or why not? And what are we to do under these circumstances?

Case 2 – Name, Blessing, and Limp

George is a new Christian who eagerly wants to learn more about God to know Him better.

He has been attending the Faithless Church where the preacher spoke about how God blessed Jacob and that as descendants of Abraham, we likewise should receive that blessing. However, the blessing that the preacher was focusing on was the material blessing, and said that God promised this blessing to Abraham's offspring.

George later attended Gamma to study the life of Jacob where he learned that Jacob received a very different blessing, which wasn't material. There were 3 things that God gave to Jacob when he wrestled with Him, and that was a new name, a blessing, and a limp.

He learned that this was analogous to what all Christians received from their saving encounter with God – not the material blessings that were spoken of at Faithless Church.

2) a) Discussion question. As Christians, in what way do we receive a new name? What does this new name mean?

b) Discussion question. Jacob's blessing was the declaration that he has overcome. In what way are we similar to Jacob? What declaration have we received from God? Consider Romans 8:1.

c) Discussion question. Jacob was crippled after his experience with God and received a limp. What is the purpose of his new disability?

d) Reflection question. Do we have a "thorn in the flesh" like Jacob and Paul? Share your own experience and how it has affected you.
