

JAMES A Faith That Works

Study 8

Faith without Works is Dead

James 2:14-26

James 2:14-26

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds."

Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds. You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

You foolish person, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend. You see that a person is considered righteous by what they do and not by faith alone.

In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

James 2:14-18

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds."

Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds

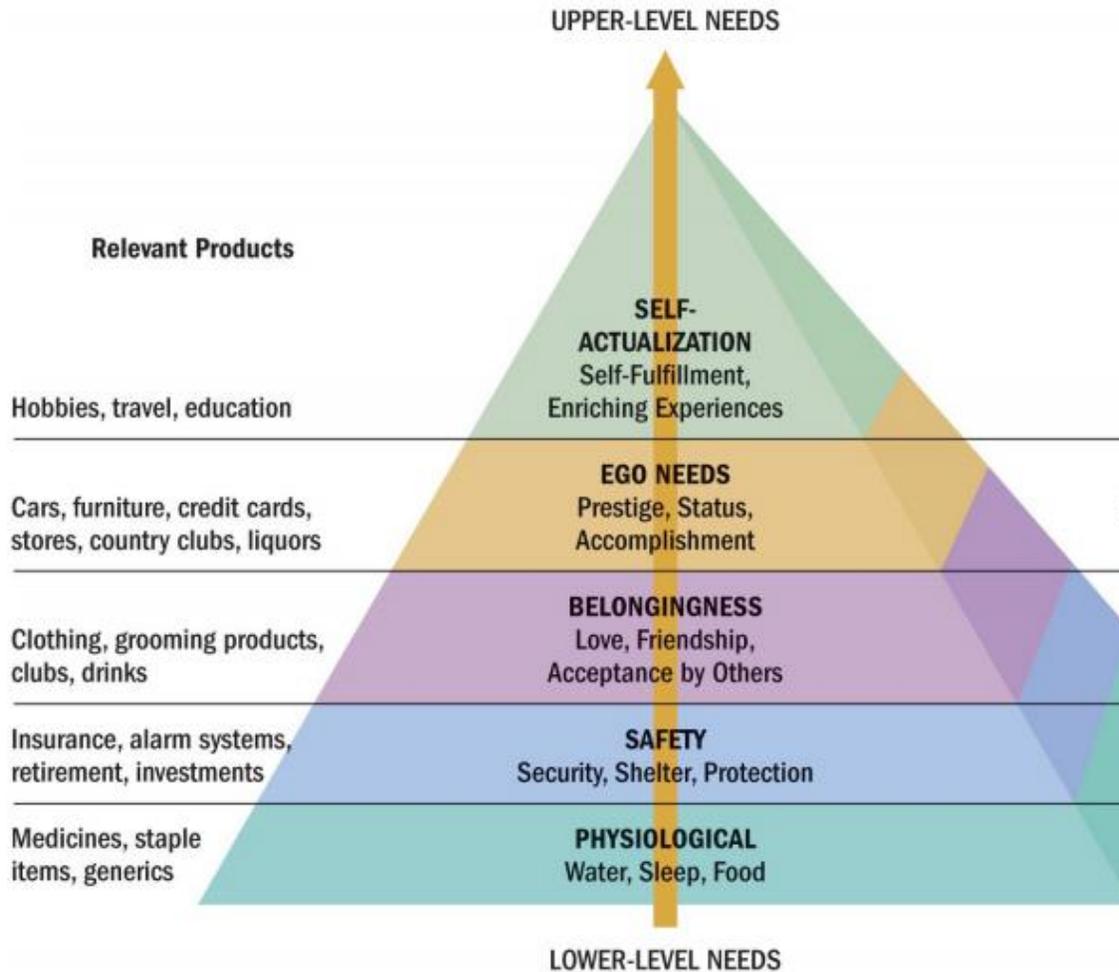

2) a) Reflection question. Reflect on James 2:14-17 and James 1:22-23, do you see a tension between belief and action in your life?

Quick Verse Reference

James 1:22-23

But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror.

Background information

b) Discussion question. Refer to Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs Theory in the image above, what would you classify the reference in James v16 of 'physical need'? Verse 14 "without clothes and daily food" can help you.

vi) Check the boxes. Which of the following are you personally willing to provide for the different categories of people in your life.

Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs	Physiological need (food, water, clothing, medicine)	Safety and security (healthcare, insurance, rent for houses)	Belongingness (inviting them to spend time together, whether in God's words or other activities)	Ego needs (car, furniture, branded items, branded handbags)	Self-actualization (hobbies, travelling, high tier education)

James 2:19-20

You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

You foolish person, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless?

3) Discussion question. What is James saying about the demon's belief in God?

James 2:21-26

Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend.

You see that a person is considered righteous by what they do and not by faith alone.

In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead

4) Discussion question. What is the difference between Abraham and Rahab and what did the both have in common?

Takeaway

Even though we are saved by faith not works, works are evidence of authentic faith. So Christians who have little or no fruits or labour of love have to check whether their root is healthy planted to God, our source of love.
